

Personal Financial Statement

Important information about procedures for opening a new account. To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person who opens an account. What this means for you when you apply for a commercial loan through Alliance Business Capital, we will ask for your name, address, date of birth, and other information that will allow us to identify you. We will also ask to see your driver's license and or other identifying documents.

Section 1: Applicant Information

Complete this Personal Financial Statement as Borrower/Principal/Guarantor ("Applicant") or Co-borrower/Co-Principal/Co-Guarantor ("Co-applicant") as applicable. Attach copies of this statement for each additional Co-Applicant.
